I. INDIVIDUAL TESTIMONIES

1. - Mothie / Mott - ex-partner of Monkey Manc

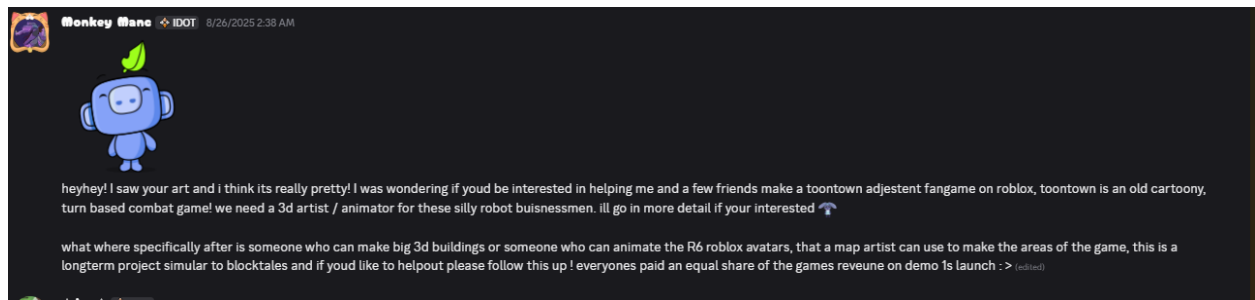

My name is Mott, previously known as Mothie. For those who are familiar with Bob/Monke, my name should ring a bell. I am Monke's ex-partner and had also written a call-out document on her due to the abuse I had endured during our relationship. You can read this document here if you haven't already. I was approached by Jams, a minor who had worked with and been harassed by Monke, on Discord to speak about my experience with Monke. I won't go too into detail since I have already shared my experience with her in my own personal document. This original document dates from around 2024.

During our relationship, I endured a lot of manipulation from Monke and it took a toll on my mental and physical health. It really pains me to see that Monke clearly hasn't learned anything and is continuing to hurt the people around her, and if you were to ask my personal opinion, I genuinely don't think that Monke deserves a second chance after the things she's done.

2. - Ace - Employee of Monkey Manc

Hello, my name is Ace. I am a 3D Modeler, Animator, and Artist. I am an employee of Idiot Studios (at least at the time of writing this). I am a minor at the age of 14. I have been exposed to sexual content by Monke and have been talked about behind my back multiple times by Monke, who also constantly nitpicks my work and gives me unreasonable deadlines that are impossible to meet. The first image shows the day Monkey first reached out to me, on 8/26/2025.

I was hired as a modeler, which meant my job was to design the character models for Monkey's project in a 3D modeling program. My first assignment was to make 4 models in only 4 days, or about 1 model per day. Keeping in mind that I was and am still a beginner modeler, there was no possible way for me to reach that goal in time. The second image shows Monkey assigning me the modeling project, complete with model details and deadlines.

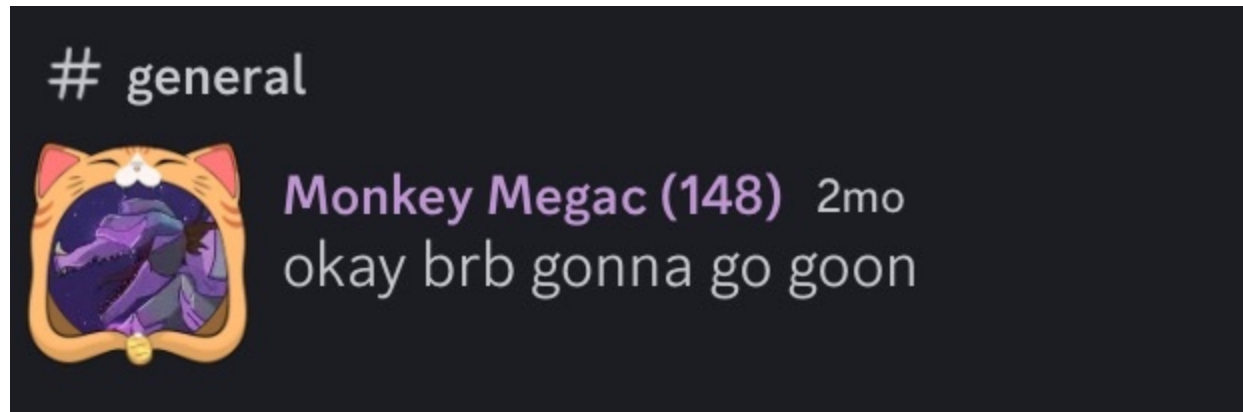

Roughly a week later, Monkey ‘fired’ me from the modeling position, saying that she “just didn’t think my skills were up to par with the project,” and offered to take me back on “when my skills are harnessed.” The third image shows Monke’s message to me about taking me off the project.

The project was important to me, so I reached back out to Monke and was allowed to rejoin the project. However, after getting taken back on the team, I kept getting unreasonable deadlines, like around 2-3 days for a model or animation.

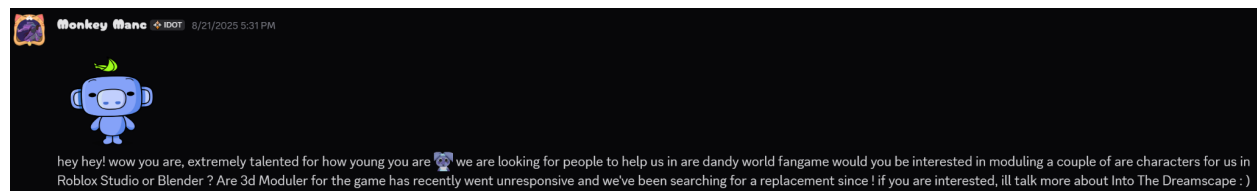

Now, when I tell you Monke nitpicks work a lot, I mean a lot. One time, I had gotten about 15 critical messages over just 1 animation, whereas others got praise. She so clearly has favoritism. She has also talked about me behind my back before, sometimes even IN FRONT of me, saying many hurtful things. She has called me annoying, said she prefers giving other modelers work rather than me (she often gives my work to other modelers to ‘fix’, even when the other modelers agreed my work was fine), has said I work too fast and that my work turns out sloppy (despite giving me deadlines that force me to rush projects), and that I annoy her by asking for more work.

Also, in their Discord server, Idiot Studios, I was exposed to sexual jokes about the Dandy’s World character, Bobette. Like “im gooning to bobette” or, “Im Busting All Over bobette”, mind you, saying this in front of multiple minors, including me. This fourth image shows Monkey talking about “gooning” in the server’s general chat in front of a server full of minors.

3. - Niznoffi - Employee of Monkey Manc

My name is Niznoffi, and I'm 15. I work as a 3D modeler and animator for Into the Dreamscape. First, I'm going to talk about favoritism in the dev team. Monke approached me on August 21, 2025, saying "hey, hey! wow, you are extremely talented for how young you are..." and asked me to work for Dreamscape.

Keep in mind, I was still 14 when she sent me this and at the time, I didn't notice how sketchy the "how young you are" part sounded. I accepted the job, being excited to be working on a Dandy's World fangame. For my first 3 assignments, I was given about 7 days to finish each one. After those 3, Monke stopped giving me deadlines. Other developers like Jubo and Ace told me that Monke has only been giving them 2-3 days to finish their assignments, which I feel is completely unfair.

In a VC with myself, Jubo, Lactose, and Monke, Monke mentioned how "Ace's models are hit or miss" and "they get excited to work and then work too fast so it comes out sloppy." On multiple occasions, Monke has given Ace's models to me to "fix" them, and sometimes she tells me to completely remodel them. A good example of this is Punch Sahur's model. Monke originally assigned Punch Sahur to Ace to model, but then once Ace was done, she sent it to me, saying "the skeleton was misaligned" (sic).

When I asked why I couldn't just fix the skeleton, she said there were "major problems with the model", as shown in the image below, even though it looked good to me.

Instead of completely remodeling the character, I just changed the face texture to look like how it does in the reference image. Another good example is the character Seam. Ace had mentioned to Monke how much they wanted to model Seam, and at the time, I had 1 assignment and Ace had 3.

Monke then said, "First one done gets toon seam," meaning the first person finished modeling their current assignments would get to make the model for this new character.

Knowing how much Ace wanted to model Seam, I said, "I'll play [Minecraft] until Ace finishes their assignment so u can do seam".

niznoffi 1/23/2026 4:38 PM

ill play mc until ace finishes their assignment so u can do seam

After that message, Monke sent a rolling eyes emoji and said "last one done gets toon seam," implying that she wanted me to create the model for the character and not Ace.

Monkey Manc IDOT 1/23/2026 4:39 PM

last one done gets toon seam

I ended up finishing my current modeling projects later that day, and less than a week later, Monke sent me a DM asking if I wanted to model Seam, Nightmare Seam, or animate.

Monkey Manc IDOT 1/27/2026 5:11 PM

you wanna do seam nightmare seam or animate

I didn't know which one to pick and was leaning towards Nightmare Seam, so I told Monke to pick for me.

niznoffi 1/27/2026 5:11 PM

choose for me idk

She said she wanted to give me Seam, and even acknowledged that she knew Ace really wanted to work on the model for that character, saying "id like to give you seam but ace gonna kill me w knife eyes".

Monkey Manc IDOT 1/27/2026 5:11 PM

id like to give you seam but ace gonna kill me w knife eyes

I was in a bad mood that day and didn't feel like arguing, so I told her to just give me whichever one she wanted, and she told me to make the model for Seam.

 @Monkey Manc  id like to give you seam but ace gonna kill me w knife eyes
 niznoffi 1/27/2026 5:24 PM
ur the owner of the game u can give me whichever one u want me to do

Monkey Manc  1/27/2026 5:25 PM

alrugiht just do them then

ok

That's just one part. Now, I'm going to talk about bullying and exclusion. On December 23, 2025, Jubo sent art in the art channel, and then said "I'll do Bobette after phighting," meaning they were planning to draw the Dandy's World character Bobette after they were finished playing Phighting, which is a third-person shooter game on Roblox.

I saw their message and wanted to play Phighting with them, so I asked if I could join and when, and Jubo said I could join them right then, because they had just joined the call.

I went onto Roblox and joined Yeetbat, a mutual friend of mine and Monkey's and the co-owner of the server, in Phighting. Not long after I joined, so did Haps (another mutual friend), and Monke. I'm unsure if Jubo was there, but I'm pretty sure he was in a match and that Monke, Haps, and Yeet were trying to join Jubo's server. I saw the three of them, went up to them, and asked "what do I do?" and got no response. I explored the map for a bit and then saw the three of them leave/go into a match without me. I got upset after that and left.

On another occasion, Monke was streaming Minecraft on Twitch, and there was a little shop where you could spend channel points to do things like make Monke eat hot sauce, play a FNaF jumpscare, or name a Pokemon after yourself. I used 590 channel points to make Monke tape her mouth shut, and then after she did, she typed in the Minecraft chat, calling me a "fucking asshole".

I've read the other document on Bob Zart, and I genuinely think Monke needs mental help. There were also other times when she had made sexual comments towards Bobette (a Dandy's World character) in public spaces where minors like me could easily access.

(Thank you to Korla for the last 2 screenshots) I personally think that she shouldn't be on the internet if she's going to act like this, especially around minors like me and Ace. There is more, but I think Jubo and Korla will talk more about that. Another little thing I want to add in regarding Monke's strict deadlines for us and wavering commitments herself is that I stayed up way later than I should have (on a school night) to finish my work so that Monke would play the game Repo with us, which she never did. Anyways, that's all I have to say.

4. - Jubilee / Juno - Employee of Monkey Manc

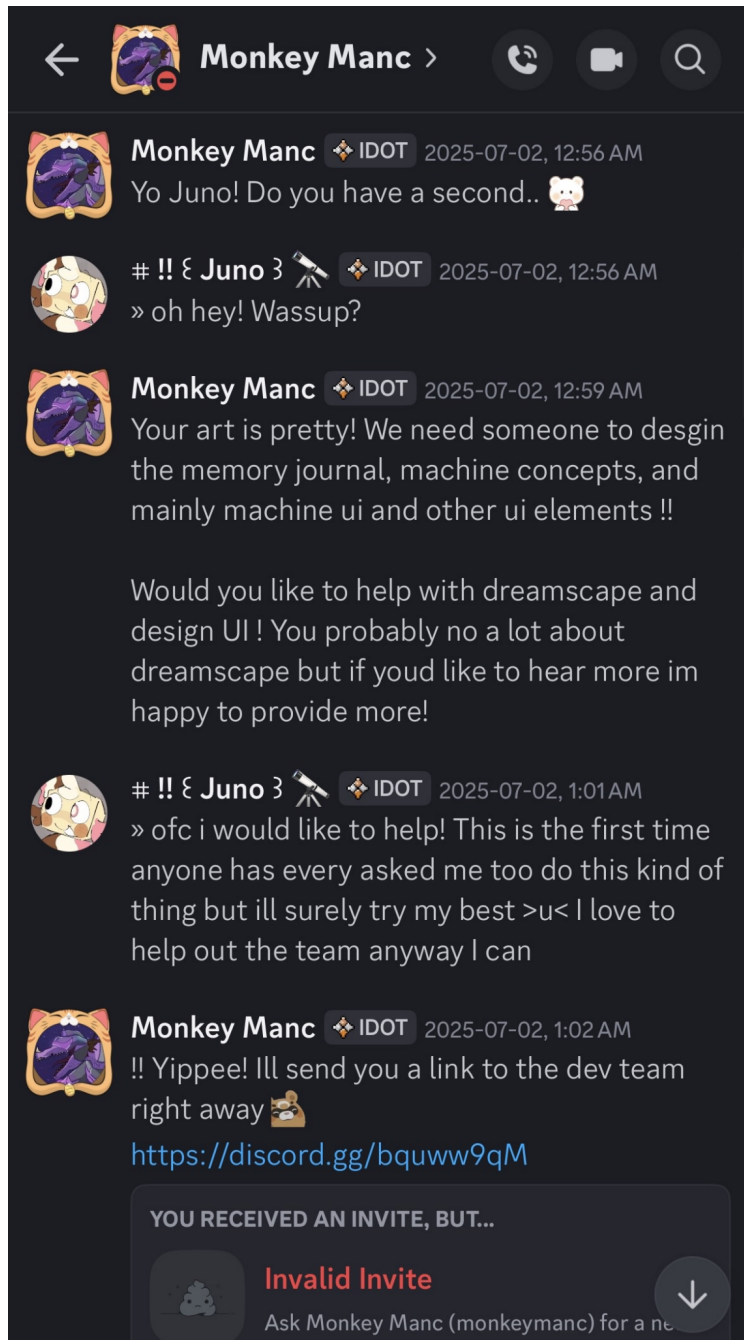

Hewo! My name is Juno! I'm also known as Jubo, uball or Jubilee by both Monke and other victims in this document. I am a minor and currently as of writing, 17 years old. I worked as a UI / Character Designer / Head moderator / Dandy's World Run Host / Media Manager / Sticker Artist / Community Manager / Jubilee's SFX Voice actor for Idiots Studio. Before joining the dev team, I was a simple fan of the Idiots Studio YouTube channel and joined the Discord server on April 10, 2025, not too long after I turned 17.

At this time, I was nothing but a random person who joined "runs," or game sessions, in the Roblox game Dandy's World because of my current and still ongoing hyperfixation with the game. After a month of being on the server, I had started posting my art in the art channel, and this specific piece had caught Monke's attention.

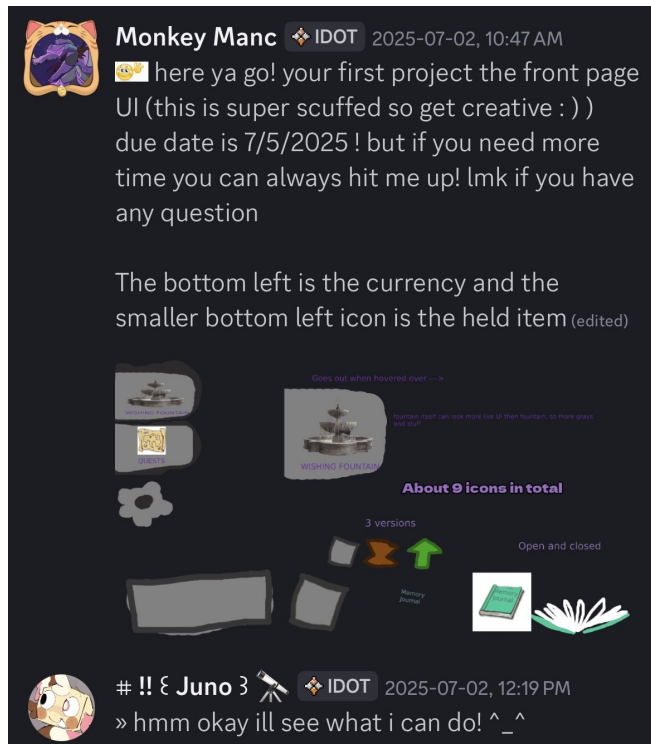

Right as I was about to go to bed that night, I had gotten a dm from her asking me to become the official UI artist for her. I had no prior experience at UI, but my young mind was more focused on the fact that someone had offered me a job. Also, it was like 1 in the morning. I wasn't thinking straight, and frankly, I should've ignored her message and gone to sleep.

She wasted no time giving me my first project that same morning, with a deadline of 3 days. Nothing was discussed about my experience in UI or how long it takes me to do work. She also had given me a big project to start with, having me draw 9 icons IN TOTAL. These would turn out to be the entire display screen for the player (before the rework)

I was very nervous about this because again, I had no idea what I was doing, and I tried my best to match her vision. I ended up changing a few icons to look more appealing to the eyes, such as the books. She would keep this same deadline of 3 days for each assignment, the only exception being the character Seam's 2D art design and the recently given stickers, both ranging from 5-7 days.

I wasn't given much break time between assignments, because a few days after I finished my current work, I would be given a new one that needed to be done pronto. I even told Monke that I needed some time to deal with my own personal life especially in the fall, which is my busiest season.

I have brought up my schedule to her many times, even sharing a photo of when I have practice and what times I'll be home. She simply brushed me off and kept giving me more work. I was being overworked to the bone, to the point I stopped doing my classwork to just get projects done on time for HER. Also, I'm 90% sure I was the one and ONLY UI artist for Into the Dreamscape.

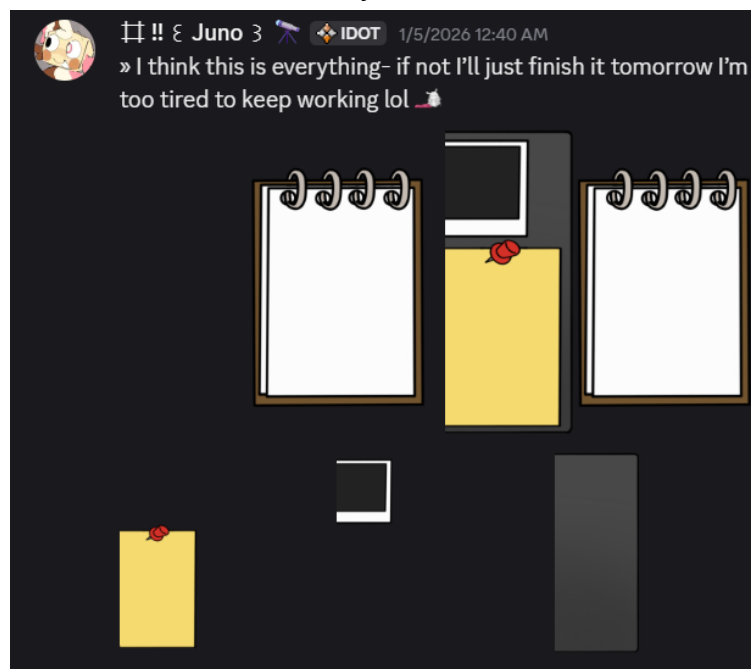

I'm going to keep my work experience brief, as I will deep dive into more in another segment of this document. There have been times when Monke would lead us on with false promises, such as playing Repo with us after we begged her to join us (us being me, Niz, Ace, and Neko). We eventually got to an agreement that if all of us (not including Neko and Ace, I think?) finished our work before midnight that same day, we would be able to play.

And we did. I turned in my work at 12:40 am on the dot.

So we waited and waited till the day came that Monke would play Repo with us, but during this, she had moved a Dandy's World run to around the same time as ours, meaning they would overlap. Which obviously was a problem, since most of us were gonna be in that run. However, on stream, she said it would still happen. I cannot confirm if she did say this because I didn't watch the stream, but I took Niz's word that she still planned to play with us.

Prior to this, she had ignored our questions about the game constantly

Here's her ignoring us on repo day

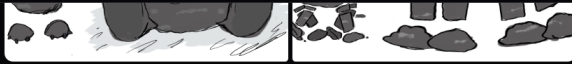

After a bit of nagging, we did get her attention, but were given a half-yarned answer. Eventually, the time for Repo passed, and we just decided she wasn't worth wasting our fun for, so we played without her. However, during this, she cancelled the run in place of Minecraft. Personally, I was pissed off because I still wanted to do the run, and at the time, I didn't have Minecraft to join the event. Jokingly, we tried to get our other friends to join us, but Monke would say no, despite the fact that we WEREN'T talking to her about repo.

If she hadn't promised us to play on the condition that we rushed our work, then it would've been fine, but she did.

Also, regarding Niz and the whole phighting situation, I KNEW Niz wanted to join the game, and I kept asking Monke in our VC to let him join (or make a workaround so he can have fun with us), but she snapped and said she didn't like playing with Niz. After that, she said she would kindly dm Niz about it and apologize, probably to shut me up about it. Which as confirmed by Niz, she never did.

I have WAY MORE to add about how she treated me as an employee that will be saved for later in this document. I will now talk about how I became the social media manager and why I was the one working behind the scenes to make this game popular.

As stated in my intro, I was the Social media Manager. This means I control the company's TikTok account, I see what gets posted and makes sure all our notifications are dealt with (most of the time). Before I was given this role, she had made the password and email public for our other devs to login and post their own videos. This was removed due to reasons I will state in a bit. Anyways, Monke had no idea how TikTok worked at first, so she would dm me a bunch of videos or photos and have me post them / create videos to make.

We would be here all day if I posted every single video she made me post, so I will link the tiktok page and you can see for yourself.

https://www.tiktok.com/@idiotstudios?_r=1&_t=ZP-93ew6G1ir4Z

In a call, she would complain to me if a video didn't do well, but I didn't know how to suddenly make the videos popular, so I just kept doing what I was doing and posting videos. Btw, some of these I had to make myself, as Monke would give me photos or videos and expected me to turn them into TikToks even if I was busy. These next three images show Monkey urging me to post videos on the project's TikTok as soon as possible, even at times I said I was in class, stating that “this is more important.”

» I would if I wasn't IN MATH CLASS

For those who might wonder if Monke doesn't know how to upload videos on her own, this isn't the case. I helped her upload videos herself before, and she's uploaded videos on her own time without telling me first. Even though she knew how to do everything herself, I was IN CLASS and expected me to drop everything to get it posted.

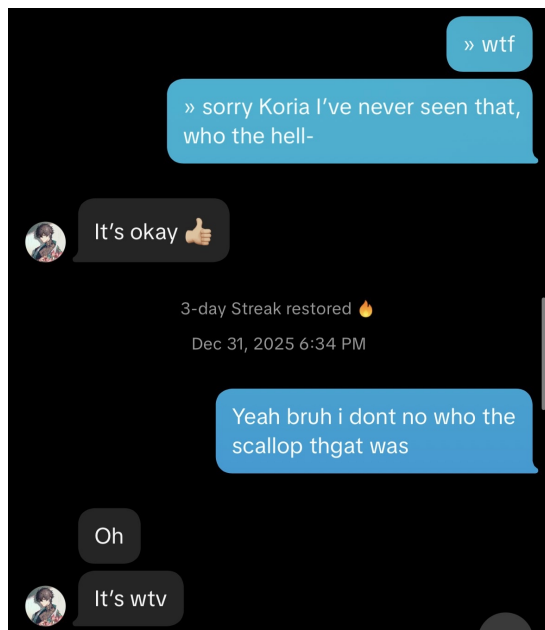

I believe in the first photo I was busy in a gaming session, and my Discord legit shows if I'm playing a game (I also believe that I was talking about the run in our general chat before?) so she comes off as lazy for expecting me to always be available to post a video for her.

Now as I mentioned before, the other devs did have access to this account before that privilege got revoked. Wanna know why that happened? Someone on our team had sent harmful messages to a friend of ours. Did Monke tell me this? NO, even though she KNEW about it because she replied to one of them!

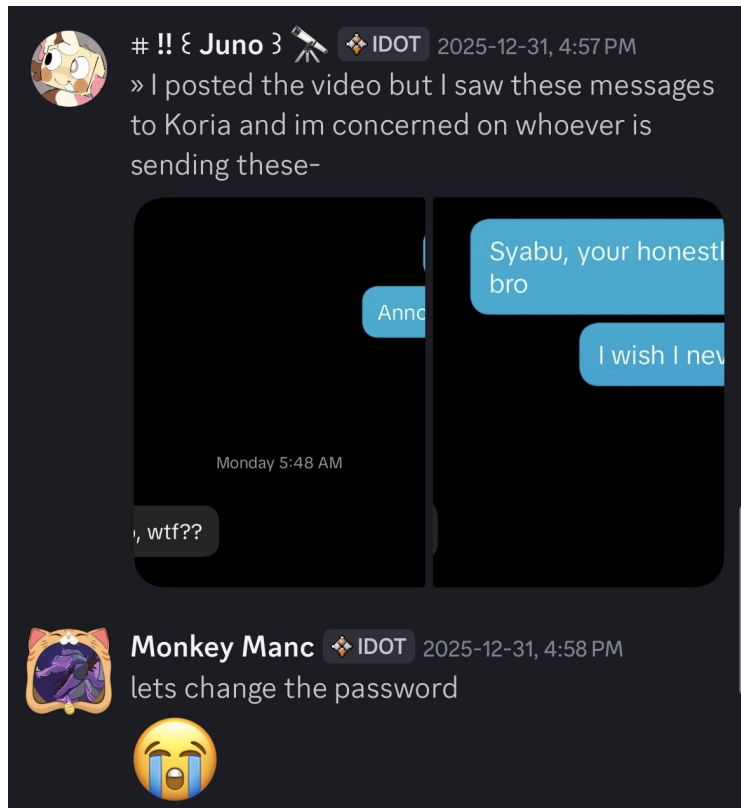

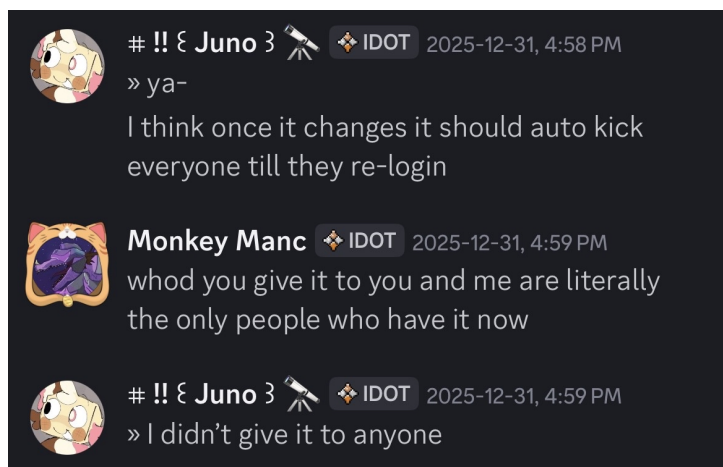

I apologized to Koria because it is both me and Monke's job to make sure we keep a good image for our brand. I only learned about this DAYS after the messages were sent and I found them on my own accord.

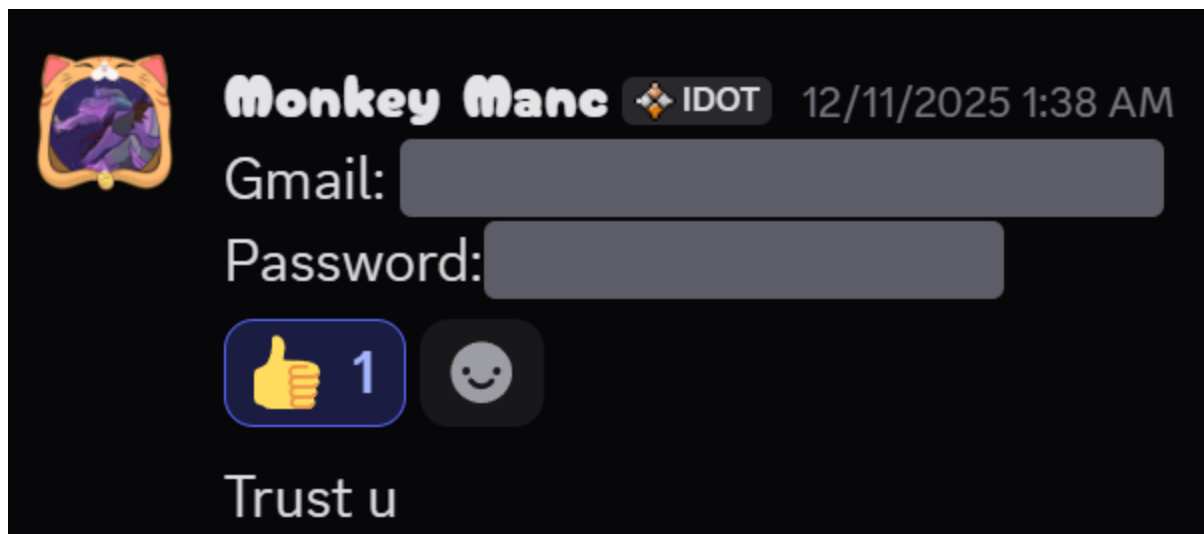

I shot Monke a text asking her what was going on, and she suggested we change the TikTok password.

I was under the assumption she did change it, but soon learned from Niz that she hadn't, and simply kicked devices off the account. She then accused me of giving out the password, as it should've been only me and her with access to the account at the time.

I find this part baffling because Niz showed me an image of Monke GIVING HIM the password and forgetting to delete it.

Meaning Niz could've logged in and messed around with the account at any time and I would most likely get blamed for it. (No, Niz did not send those threats to Koría.) It's speculated that Monke was the one to have said those things, but we have no clear evidence to back this up. If it wasn't her, then I apologize for thinking it was, and if it was, then screw you Monke for what you said to my friend.

I was a run hoster for Dandy's World when Monke didn't feel like playing. Hosters are supposed to ask permission to host runs, but with Monke's sleep schedule, it would take hours to plan anything. We would go to the co-owners for help and get approval, only to be messaged that we weren't supposed to do that. This led to the suspension of Jam's host role despite everyone disagreeing with it.

For a day for hosting a run there back now

She also has a habit of taking over runs despite the idea or suggestion being planned for when she couldn't make it, and would delay people from joining it. I had asked many times to host a randomizer run for fun when she asked me to host and would get shut down each time because she wanted to be there. I personally did not mind waiting (however it's not like we can't do multiple runs a week of the same idea?) but when the day came she took over as host and added a bunch of stuff that killed the mood for a lot of the players. I didn't get a say in anything even though I was the host of the run. It's hard to argue with her because she would abuse her powers and "chain of command." My friend Niz would ask me personally about trinkets to use and Monke would shove in saying what to wear even though it wasn't in the run set. I was basically forced to agree with her because she would use the "I'm the server owner" card every time someone disagreed with her.

I was doing a lot of background stuff compared to everyone else, and it felt so draining with each new day. I felt like quitting and never looking back because of how much pressure was put on me, especially since I was still a high school student who had school to worry about on top of everything else. I didn't even touch on how Monkey acted super unprofessionally and inappropriately towards me and others, as it will be stated in the next section after the testimonies. Thank you for hearing my voice, and I apologize if this is messy, as I'm not used to doing this kind of thing. </3

6. - Korla - ex-friend of Monkey Manc

Hello! My name is Korla, and I used to be Monkey Manc's friend! I am an adult, and I joined Monkey's server when I was 19-20. I was also one of the host runners along with Niznoffi, Jubo, and Jams whenever Monkey didn't host a run. Lately, Monkey has been making sexualized jokes in front of minors who are 14-17, and that doesn't sit right with me. I was in a group chat with Monkey, myself, and Jubo, who is a minor. As soon as that GC was made, Monkey sent an NSFW photo of the Dandy's World character Bobette into the GC, but then deleted it after she remembered that Jubo was a minor.

She continued to say sexual stuff towards minors about characters she likes. I also got death threats from her on TikTok, saying things like "sybau your honestly annoying, I wish I never met you,” and “go kill yourself,” or other things along those lines.

One time, when she was streaming herself playing the horror game Forgotten Memories with her friends on Twitch, I tried to help her out by offering her advice, because I had played the beginning of the game with one of my friends before. Even though my friends and I had never beaten it when we last played, I knew what to do, and I wanted to share that information with someone I cared about and saw as a friend.

After a while, after I said “bro”, she got mad at me and had this MASSIVE crash out on me, along with those lines she said “I’ll unplug your life support koria”, <https://www.twitch.tv/idiotplaydandysworld/clip/TastyViscousHamMrDestructoid-PbQGbNDouSdYLNHL>

I left and said, “I’ll just go, my friend is calling me.” That was a lie, and I ended up having a breakdown because of what Monkey said to me.

6. - YeetBat / GigaVB - Friend of Monkey Manc

Hello, my name is Yeet, or others might know me as Giga. I've been friends with Monke since 2024, when I was in another community server of hers named Moe's House. I'm also a recorder for Idiot Studios. Recently, I've been having some trouble keeping up with Monke's friendship. She's been harassing and being forceful to other people. Monke has some issues where she only thinks of herself and nobody else, one example being that she expects me to always record video clips of our Dandy's World game sessions, even when I'm busy or don't feel like recording that day. She will not give anyone else a chance to record clips for any run, except for me, no matter what.

Monke thinks that I'm someone with no life and always online doing whatever, and for that, she would always host a run, or game session, expecting me to be there. Since I can't make it to every run, on the occasions I was absent, Monke would delay the run or cancel it altogether, holding off 7 other people from playing the game together even though I had been clear I couldn't make it. Because of that, it drains people down from doing the runs bc of the delayed runs that I couldn't make it in.

Another one of her issues is not thinking about other people and considering what they might want or need. Whenever we do questing, which essentially means doing tasklines in the game Toontown Corporate Clash, Monke is so unbelievably impatient that she would force us to rush through each taskline, losing enjoyment for the game.

I get that Monke wants to get the tasks done as fast as possible, but when it comes to everyone's life and priorities, we can't ALWAYS quest whenever she's down, because we always have our own things to do. Monke would frequently DM me asking if I could complete intensive tasks in Toontown Corporate Clash called kudos for a mutual friend and minor, Jams, because Monke wanted to get the kudos tasks done as fast as possible. I can understand her getting the kudos task done really quickly and I was willing to help with the grind, but forcing me to do the kudos while it's taking time away from important things like my other friends is just straight up not cool.

Monke can't accept Jams telling her that they're busy and don't have the time to complete quests. When that happens, she'll crash out on Jams, saying that she's been delaying even when she hardly delays like a day. It's gotten to the point that these days, when Monke asks me to run the kudos quests, I have to tell her that I'm busy with friends and side questing with family, but that's all a lie. I turn my activities off just so Monke doesn't suspect that I'm online.

Monke also doesn't understand boundaries: when she says playfully mean things to other people, there are people out there who get genuinely heartbroken by the hurtful things she says. She's also hurt many of her employees.

7. - Anonymous - Employee of Monkey Manc

I'm a former volunteer/unpaid employee on two of the games Jasmine leads on. The extent of my communication with Jasmine was work-oriented or would consist of invitations to some of her events, and the two of us were not close. Much of what I know now about her and the vast difference in how she treated me and how she treats teenagers is thanks to the other developers who reached out. I do believe her inappropriate behavior with the younger developers and friends was done consciously and intentionally, as I, older than her, was never sent anything of that nature. I felt sick to my stomach when I learned she had a secret, role-locked channel for sharing intimate details and art from her partner in one of the servers I had been invited to. I don't know if said partner knows it exists.

I was one of the oldest devs on the team, and I believe this played into unfair favoritism. Employees much younger than me often received deadlines under a week or as little as 3 days, unable to have a healthy balance of school responsibilities, free time, and friendships outside of Jasmine's circles- while I received extensions or no deadlines at all. In voice chats, which were the only time I heard her speak so candidly, her controlling behavior and insults towards others had started off mistakable for jokes, but by the time I had to stop attending her events/runs, they were frequent, and she would have outbursts. I don't believe she is fit to be running as many servers and games as she does, let alone be curating an audience of mostly children/teenagers, if her behavior to this point is any indication of how she will continue to act.

8. - Jamie / Jams - Friend of Monkey Manc

Hello, my name is Jamie, but you can call me Jams. I've been friends with Monke for a while, but we had a falling out for a few weeks, then got back into contact with each other. Now, when I met Monke, she was 17, and I was freshly 15. Mine and Monke's friendship had started okay, but over time, they continued to treat me worse and worse. They eventually got me into a game called Toontown Corporate Clash, which they would borderline force me to play, and if I didn't, it would result in bullying.

I have been bullied, sent porn, ridiculed, and harassed in many ways, and I have been put in many situations where it felt like I had no control over anything.

I have also been financially exploited. On many occasions, Monke would beg me to buy them food, which would cost me about 20 dollars each, and unfriended me when I didn't buy them the food. It put me in an uncomfortable position, and there was nothing I could do because there was a horrible power imbalance between us.

Monke has put me in many sexual situations, whether it be humor or images I've been sent. Granted, we were both minors at the time the NSFW chats with their partner were leaked, but it was still very uncomfortable to read and shouldn't have been shown. I've struggled heavily to write this, as my mental health has been severely impacted by this entire situation. The way she treats those around her has been disgusting, and the treatment of her employees has been cruel.

People have tried to speak to her about her behavior, but each time, she either wouldn't listen or would just ban/kick people from the group chat or server. It's like talking to a brick wall, because she and her partner won't listen to anyone's grievances about her. This behavior is unacceptable, and I refuse to sit idly and let her game do well while her friends and employees are being treated this way.

This friendship has cost me a lot. My mental health, my time, my money, and I just can't do this anymore.

II. INAPPROPRIATE BEHAVIOR TOWARDS MINORS

Monke had repeatedly made many inappropriate comments and jokes while around minors, even going as far as sending porn to Juno and Jams in dms/group chats. This has broken her own rule in the Idiots Studio Discord server, along with making everyone around her uncomfortable.

Specifically, she had made sexual jokes towards the Dandy’s World character Bobette numerous times and towards Juno’s art of Bobette/Twisted Bobette. While this isn’t the only character she’s done it to, it was the most prominent and easy to find evidence for as she would constantly send these jokes to the Discord server.

» I retract my statement

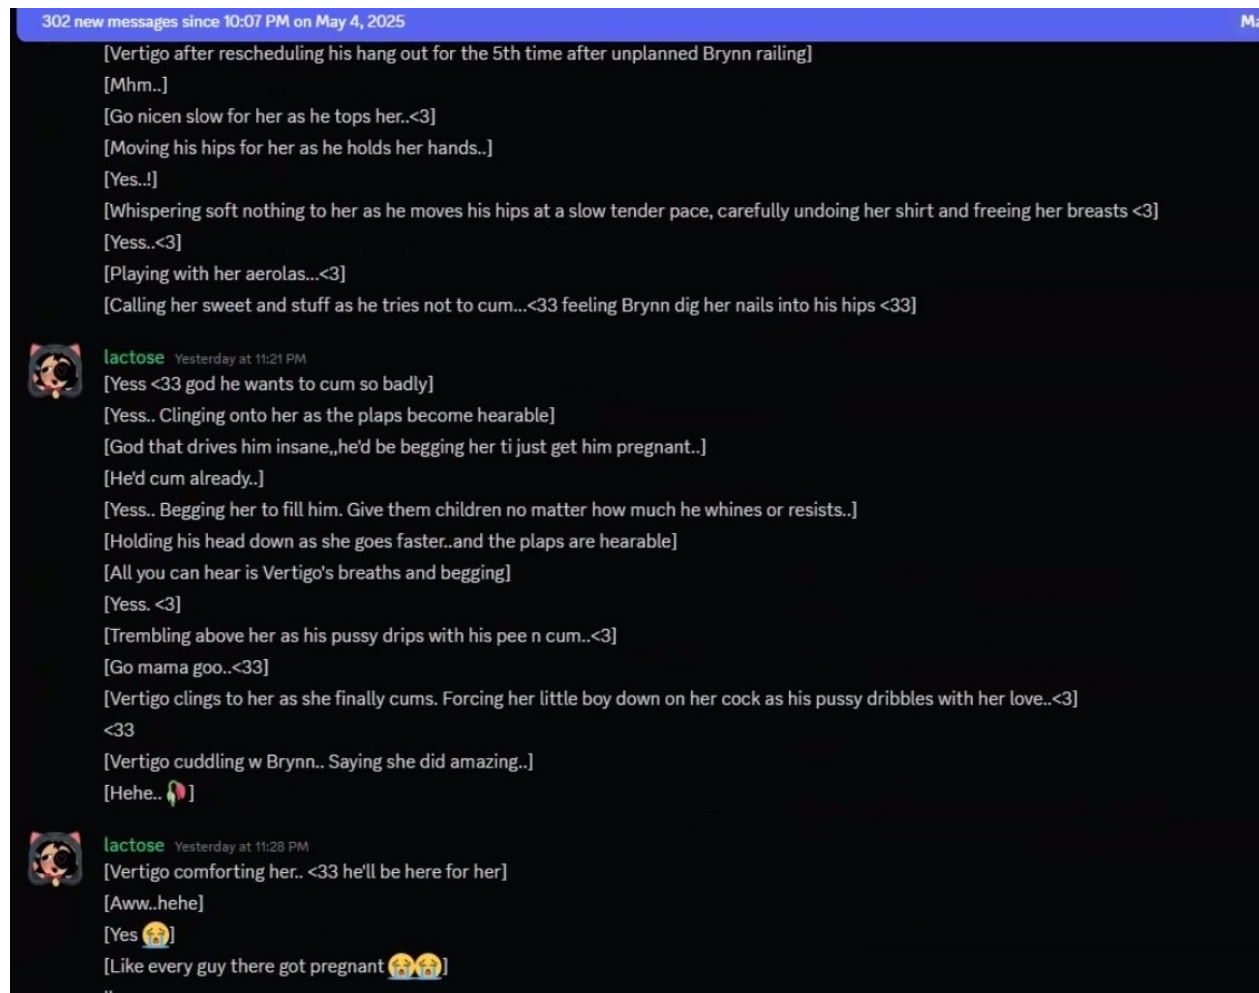

For some more context on this image, Monke had posted a photo of futa Bobette in a group chat where Juno (minor) and Koria (adult) were in. She states it was an accident and deleted it but proceeds to show heavily suggestive rule34 in the group chat.

Jams was sent an uncensored version of this image (this is the censored version) in dms with Monke. This is art drawn by Monke's partner Lactose. It is unknown if Lactose knows that Monke shared this private drawing, but it was shown to Jams who is a minor. Along with this, Jams was also sent leaked messages of Monke and Lactose acting sexually in a vc chat/dms.

I'm unsure what Monke was thinking when she showed these to a 15-year-old minor, or if her partner knew that something like this was even leaked. Moving on, Monke had made a rape joke after Koria had left a group chat with her, Koria, and Juno in it. She didn't bother caring about Koria and decided to make a very inappropriate joke while only Juno was there.

Instant smash

shedding white tears making her watch

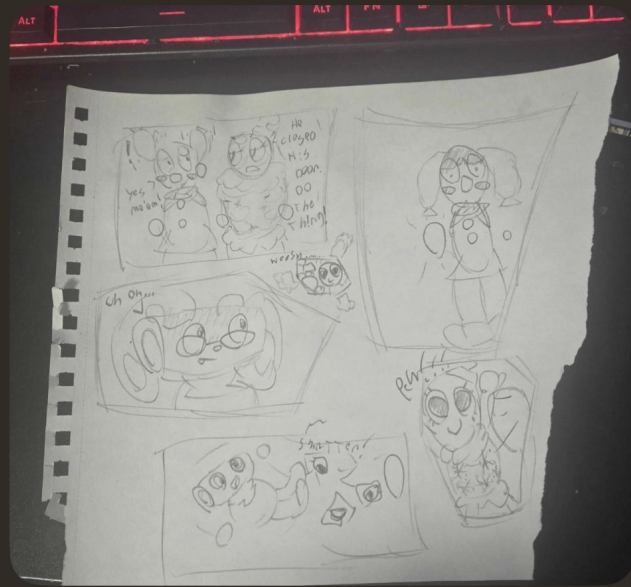

This didn't stop at just the character as she would act weird and sexual towards people who played as the toon during our runs. When the 2025 Dandy's World Christmas update dropped, Juno or someone else had equipped the winter 'Snow-Time' skin, and the first thing Monke did was look underneath Bobette's dress and back shot the player. During the runs she would constantly talk sexually about Bobette while the player was standing there which made a lot of people uncomfortable and did not want to use Bobette anymore. All of this happened in vc calls with around 8 other people to witness it, she even made a comic joking about her "Bobette bending" powers which had Juno's cosmo sona in.

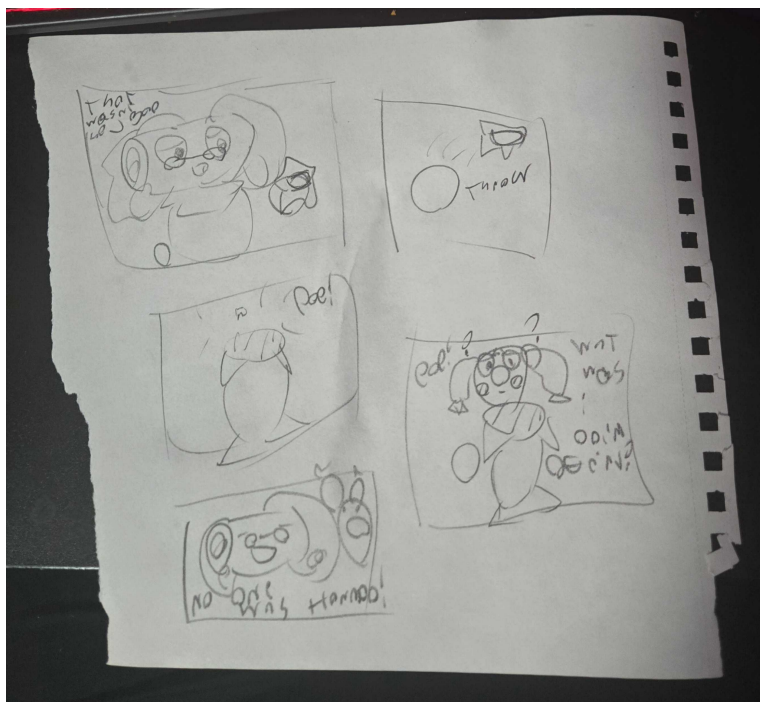

Monkey Megac (148) ♦ IDOT 2025-12-19, 9:17 AM

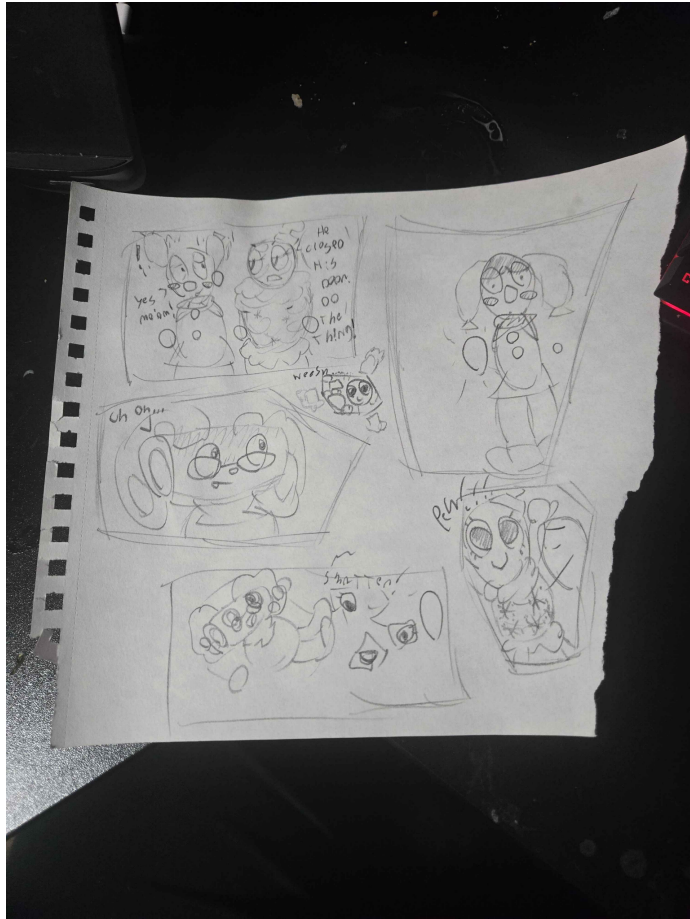

@AU I've learned the art of bobbette bending

!! ε Jubilee 3 ♦ IDOT 2025-12-19, 9:17 AM

» this is abuse

She also made another comic where she implied that Juno's Cosmo persona was going to "touch" Brusha. This isn't the first time she pushed a narrative that a minor being in a relationship would end in sex. Nobody in their right mind would assume that someone being alone with their partner is immediately going to have sex, especially when it's directed at a minor.

Not for us tho 🤔 🎸 🍄 ❤️ ❤️ 💕 🏠 🌳

III. EMPLOYEE ABUSE

Monke and her partner, Lactose, are the lead developers for their game Into the Dreamscape. It is a dandy's world fangame; however, in Monke's own words, she wants this game to be a rival of Dandy's world instead of being a fangame in honor of it.

Recently, we had a dev meeting discussing the game and its mechanics. Frankly, half of the staff doesn't even know the lore of this game, and our expected release date is 8/30/2026. The game is designed to be challenging, but it feels more designed to make players quit the game immediately. It's messy, difficult, and rather damaging to players if you struggle in-game. There's a mechanic where everyone has a sanity bar, and if that sanity hits zero, you are put through constant flashing lights and shaky camera movement. This concern was brought up to Monke in a voice call, and in her own words, she said, "Skill issue, game core." No signs of concern for their playerbase or accepting of the criticism that this could cause harm to players through sickness or even an epilepsy seizure if not careful.

If you ask most of the employees about this game, they could probably tell you little to nothing about it. We only know the characters, which is a whole other thing of Monke wanting to make a bloated cast. This ties into the update schedule we were shown in the dev call meeting. She wants us to pump out an update EVERY single month with 2 new toons, floors, floor events, and more!

This falls into the abuse that Monke put her employees through. Many of us have lives outside of the internet, and being expected to work every 1-2 weeks each month with little to no breaks is not a healthy work environment, especially for people as young as 14. Not to mention the odd time frames she gives everyone, even with the favoritism.

For context, sharing an employee's personal stuff without expressed consent.

Monkey Mane IDOT 8/26/2025 6:48 PM

Heres your first project!

We dont have building designs as off now so you can help w heads !

So 4 heads in total 2 hands and 2 heads !

This will be due on the 30th ! Or in 4 days Lmk if yku need more time : 3

Short Deadlines. This person was a beginner modeler at the time.

@niznoffi yeah i'm saying it looks fine it doesn't need to be changed??

Monkey Manc  IDOT 1:11 PM

If you genuinely dont wanna fix it thats okay its fine but I want it to be accurate to a bear muzzle this is getting way to heated

Can you rework it to be a thin muzzle if not ill get some third party to do it and ace can texture afterward uts nothing against ace or you yall are great but im just asking if yalk can rework it to my vision

niznoffi 1:15 PM

monke, i'm gonna be honest, i really don't like how you keep giving me ace's models/projects because they "don't look good" to you and also you talking about ace behind their back was not cool at all, it makes me wonder what you say about the other employees. you need to acknowledge that both ace and I are literally 14, we're both minors and you expect professional level models from us

niznoffi 1:07 PM

yeah i'm saying it looks fine it doesn't need to be changed??

also the toontown bat references aren't helping

Monkey Manc  1:08 PM

Yeah I know but I want it changed thats all it should be a oval attached to its face pretty much

Rather then its jaw outlined maybe a but of buffer here n there but thats all if ys cant fix it thats fine but thats what I wanted

ok im awake

Context is Ace was modeling a character for one of Monkey's games, but kept nitpicking, even though Ace and Niznoffi both agreed they were fine.

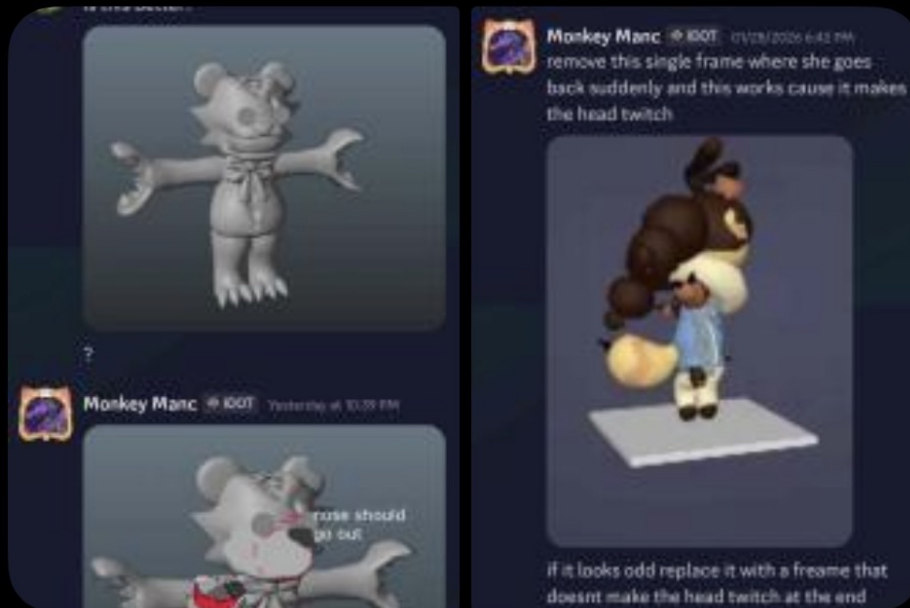

Monkey Manc  1:16 PM

Im not i said the snout needs a rework ?? I gave you the punch one before because it had the base of it its really not this deep i just want the muzzle to be a cylender bruh im not expecting professional work here 😭😭 other then some of the stuff recently like the bee thing

Also ace knows??

I told ace about the bee animation and the seam muzzle im having ysll work as a team not somr behind back work

This stuff is usually after revisions and I go here for tooning like any other team does

niznoffi 1:18 PM

in the call with me, jubo, and lactose you were talking to us about how you thought aces models were “hit or miss” and you wanted me to model seam bec you thought my models were better

@Ace IDOT no no its fine im just more worried abt the talking abt my back

Monkey Manc IDOT 1:20 PM

And yknow what ace im genuinely sorry lactose said that and I agreed @niznoffi you also said that ace "tends to rush and make their current work sloppy"

Monkey Manc IDOT 1:21 PM

No I didnt bruh 😭😭 i mightve said rushed tho but I tell ace that too I tell him to slow down

This isn't somr big surprise bomb at least I dont think ?? I have nothing against EITHER of you ace is amazing and id never replace them in a million years

niznoffi 1:22 PM

it's just that you shouldn't be talking about anyone especially your employee behind their back

Monkey Manc IDOT 1:22 PM

Thats not what I was trying to do niz this just seems way to overboard I tell ace to slow down and tell him when I sent you stuff to rework i dont even recall doing ts in public??

Monkey Manc added lactose to the group. 1:22 PM

Monkey Manc IDOT 1:22 PM

Lactose you should read and aplgoize to

lactose 1:24 PM

[Ohh I see]

[I'm deeply sorry ace- I shouldve truthfully not said any of those things about your models and whatnot. It was extremely disrespectful of me]

Monkey Manc 1:24 PM

I agree I should've have been disrespectful but I dont think it was ever out of malice, aces viscara is amazing we where just talking casually and om sorry to @lactose [Ohh I see] [I'm deeply sorry ace- I shouldve truthfully not said any of those ...

✧Ace✧ 1:25 PM

its fine, it just hurts to just figure out someone was talking behind your back and i just, yknow

Monkey Manc 1:27 PM

We didnt mean to ace, I tried telling yoy to slow down and when I give stuff to rework to ace its not because yoye not good enough I gave Niz nightmare tinker run to bounce between you both aswell so irs not super one sided or anything if niz couldnt fix something animation wise id hand it over to yoy to see ifnyou cpuld fix it vise versa thats just me putting both of you on 1 thing

Me and lactose aplgize for the stuff we have send behind your back

The context for the screenshots above is that Monkey and Lactose had been talking about Ace's work behind their back, and this was Niz calling them out on it in a public GC.

Dumping a bunch of work back-to-back in the span of a few hours in one day and making Juno redraw all their old ui's because she didn't specify what she wanted, making them do more work than needed. Not to mention that all of this can be made IN roblox studios without the need for an artist to do this. Ace and Niz provided evidence of this meaning that Monke made Juno do work that was never needed.

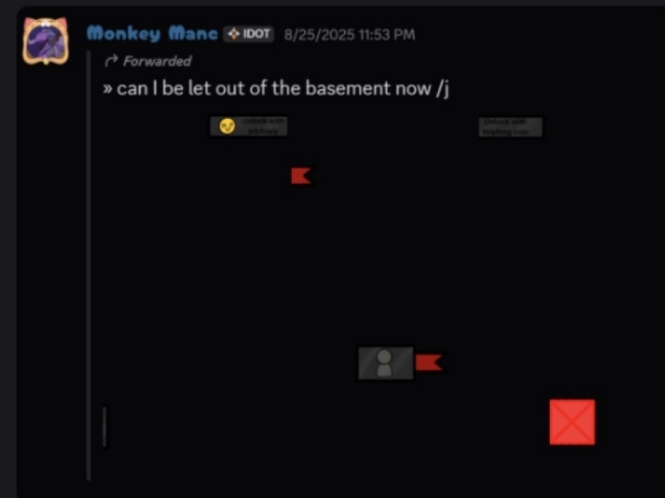

n... 8:48 PM

yeah why don't they make some of the GUIs in studio?
this is literally SO EASY to make in studio and i've barely used studio

n... 8:50 PM

and all of this too, you just have to draw the little icons (like the smiley face or the person)

niznoffi 8:59 PM

proof that the ui can mostly be made in studio, the colors are off but that's fixed easily by just importing ur own images

IV. BULLYING AND HARASSMENT / MANIPULATION

This segment is going to get into the bullying and harassment that both monkeys' friends and employees have endured. This also includes the many types of manipulation, such as general and financial. Many unacceptable things have been said both in front of and behind the scenes.

We were doing a dandy's world run (I was yatta) and we went to floor 30 when monke asked how many of us wanted to crash out. I said I didn't really wanna but I could just do a yatta solo if everyone else does. Do you wanna know what she said to me? "You need to get off dandy's world and get a life Juno." (I wish i remembered exactly what she said bc it was way longer than that but it's the only part I remember) the voice chat (at least the 3 others who were talking I was muted) went silent and she nervously laughed and said "that's a little mean.." I don't think she even said sorry? Anyways cherry on top she said in on the live stream to people watching sew ya
